

Global Remittances Pattern to Nigeria

The map depicts the volume of global remittances from migrants, mainly labour migrants to Nigeria. Europe and United States are attractive destinations for Nigerian migrants who remit money periodically back home for personal and investment opportunities. Remittances account for one of the largest financial flows above international aid to the country. The data is sourced from the open data repository of The World Bank.